

Seth,

I am a different actor because of you. I cannot even begin to express how valuable the lessons are that I received from you, not just acting-wise, but also the type of professional I hope to be. Your dedication to this department and to the students is immeasurable. Thank you for your faith in me, for my Enemy of the People/Animal Crackers/Othello experiences, and for preparing me for a professional career. Best, Natalie Riegel