

overdue expression of gratitude for the opportunity to join the lineage of Desdemonas. I feel fortunate to have had another opportunity to work with you, not only as a director who masterfully works with actors and has an intellectual and aesthetic vision for his shows, but also as an avid navigator of Shakespeare's text and the demands of speaking it.
It was a challenging and fulfilling final performance at UA.

With gratitude and sincerity
Abby

Dear Seth,

Thank you for the incredible amount of work you put into making our showcase a success, and for spending your Spring Break seeing it through. The positive response we all received (individually and as a group) is testament to your commitment to our training and professional growth.

Please also accept my